PRACTICAL TERMS & CONDITIONS This is a summary of the practical terms that apply to Halo Festival. The full Terms and Conditions apply and are at halofestival.com. A valid ticket is required for entry. Only buy from official outlets. Tickets from unauthorised sellers or private resales are invalid and we may refuse entry without refund. Official resale is via Skiddle at face value or less only. Do not screenshot or share mobile barcodes. Barcodes may refresh and only the most recent version will scan. Ticket limits apply per person, card, household and device. We are not responsible for lost or stolen tickets or devices. Wristbands remain our property, must stay on for the full event, and are void if cut, damaged or removed. This is an outdoor event and runs whatever the weather, except in extreme conditions affecting the venue. Tickets are refunded only if the event is cancelled by the organiser. Booking and transaction fees are non-refundable. We reserve the right to search you and your property on entry, to refuse admission, and to remove anyone who does not follow instructions from our staff. Strict no re-entry policy, except for medical or welfare reasons at staff discretion. Certain items are prohibited and will be removed; we may prohibit any item considered a hazard. Photography and filming may take place and may be used by us for promotional purposes. CCTV and surveillance operate for security. To opt out of image use, email festivalsupport@imaginehalo.com. Challenge 25 operates at all bars. Tickets must not be resold for profit or used in commercial promotions without our written permission. Promoter: Halo Service Solutions Ltd, Halo House, Gipping Way, Stowmarket, IP14 1GJ.
